The Echoes of 1954

The Staff

Editor
PAUL PITTMAN

Business Manager
JOYCE BOYKIN

Presented by
The Senior Class of Wendell High School

Through the idealism of her personality and the inspiration of her freindship, Mrs. Ruth Wall, has taught us---not only the significance and beauty of language---but the truth and beauty of life. In her classroom work, the greatest benefits are found not in the subject matter taught, but in principles of noble living. It iswith pleasure that we dedicate ECHOES OF '54 to one who so well deserves it.

Prophecy

One morning as I was reading the paper I came across an article which read "Home Town Girl Makes Good." This article was referring to one of my classmates of '54. By reading it, it made me think about each one of my classmates so I decided I would write a book and name it "Ten Years After Graduation." Here is what I wrote-----

John Chamblee, Billy White and Wayne Raper are instructors at the N. Y. School for Safe Driving. After all, they have had plenty of experience.

Jerry Lovelace is a well known preacher and Shirley Johnson is helping him in his religious work.

Esther Harris is fashion designer and copywriter for Ivey-Taylor's in Raleigh. She can still chum around with Virginia Long who is physical education teacher at Cary High School.

Owners of the "Three Sons Drive-In Theatre" are Frank Starnes, Graham Dean, and Elmore Stott, who sell season tickets to teen-agers. Wonder why???

Joyce Boykin writes the "Joyce's Advice to the Lovelorn" in the News and Observer. By the way, she has changed her name to Mrs. Bobby Nowell.

Harold Rogers, Paul Pittman and Joe Dean are playing football for the Washington Redskins.

Robert Raybon is driving a bus for the Trailway Bus Company.

Kenneth Nowell, our senior class president, is a famous psychologist at a mental institution in Chicago---always knew with his ability he would go places.

Mrs. John Williamson and Mrs. John Ashley Hinnant better known as Peggy Mitchell and Millie Fuller, are workers at the Revenue Building in Raleigh.

Betty Lou Richardson and Marie Massey are teaching the "Arts of Basketball" to anyone who wishes to learn, during their spare time from Secretarial Work.

Milo Horton is a successful tobacco farmer with his father.

Yvonne Dean and Bobby Horton are instructors at a deaf and dumb school---gee, I can't understand this, for at school they were always talking.

Mrs. Johnny Gay, the former Sue Taylor, is a model at the N. Y. Modeling School during her spare time---always knew her height would take her places.

Beaman Scarboro and Charles Clark are professors at State College---still pulling for State.

Jo Ann Roberts is owner and operator of Robert's Beauty Saloon---well, at least, she has tried many hair styles.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Raper, Mrs. Raper, the former Barbara Archer, are happily married and are living at Lizzard Lick.

Judy Lane is an actress at Hollywood, and boy, is she giving Marilyn Monroe competition.

On a T.V. program tonight I saw Harry James' Orchestra and who was playing with him---none other than Tommy Bunn and Claud Hull.

Mary Frances Fuller, Annie Mae Crawford and Kathleen Earp, better known as the "Three Madams" are very prosperous in their business of Fortune Telling.

Linda Nowell is an old-maid school teacher at Hugh-Morson High School---I always knew she would be left out because of her slowness.

Ollie Ray Baker, Jack Lewis and Roger Phipps are owners and operators of the "Blue Star Gambling Casino" in Nevada.

Dean Richardson and I, Faye Driver, are teaching the arts on "How To Get a Man and Keep Him"---we have had plenty of experience on how to keep them.

History

We, the seniors of '54, have finally reached our destination for which we have endured many struggles and hardships for the past twelve years.

In September, 1942, as we entered the first grade with a great ambition to learn, we had a tough struggle with our ABC's and learning how to read and write. Our elementary teachers aided us greatly in achieving these tasks. The first eight years of our schooling passed very quickly as we made much progress and advanced to high school.

As we entered the ninth grade in 1950, no one could have been any prouder. At first it was very difficult for us to get adjusted to high school, but after a short while we began to make much progress. We shall never forget the many good times we have had together and the classmates that have come and gone. We will always remember our ninth and tenth grade teachers who helped us in getting adapted to high school life.

During our Junior year, we gave the Junior Play, "Best Seller," under the direction of Mrs. Elwood Perry. In May we went to Cary for Career Day, which everyone enjoyed very much. Then came the time for the Junior-Senior Banquet for which we had all looked forward and made many plans.

Finally we became "dignified seniors," the goal for which we had worked eleven years. We had as our sponsor the faithful and highly esteemed Mrs. E. T. Boyette. During the second week of school we received our long-awaited class rings of which everyone was very proud. Soon afterwards the class sponsored the Halloween Carnival.

In November we went to Williamsburg, one of the trips to which we had all looked forward. Mr. L. C. Murphy and our sponsor, Mrs. E. T. Boyette, accompanied us on the trip which everyone enjoyed very much and had loads of fun. At last March came and we took a trip to Washington. We shall never forget this trip when we toured the historical places of Washington which we had previously read about.

In May we shall receive our diplomas and then go out into another phase of life. With the help that we have received from our teachers, we feel that we are prepared to lead a successful life and to undertake any task of the future with high hopes and determination.

HISTORIAN-

Class Poem

Classmates one and all,
We approach life's narrow road,
Now each must go on alone,
And each carry his own load.

As we look behind us,
O'er the path we have trod,
We thank our parents, teachers and God,
That these four years have rendered thus.

Though each of us may go a separate way,
We shall never really part,
Even after graduation in May,
We're bound heart to heart.

Joyce Boykin

Linda Nowell Class Song

Wendell High School, Wendell High School
We have named you,

You're the school whose memory
Lingers in our hearts.

Now, with sorrow and with sadness

We must leave you,

For within your dear ole rooms

We got our starts.

We shall always remember you
Dear old Wendell,

All our teachers and our classmates
We'll always love.

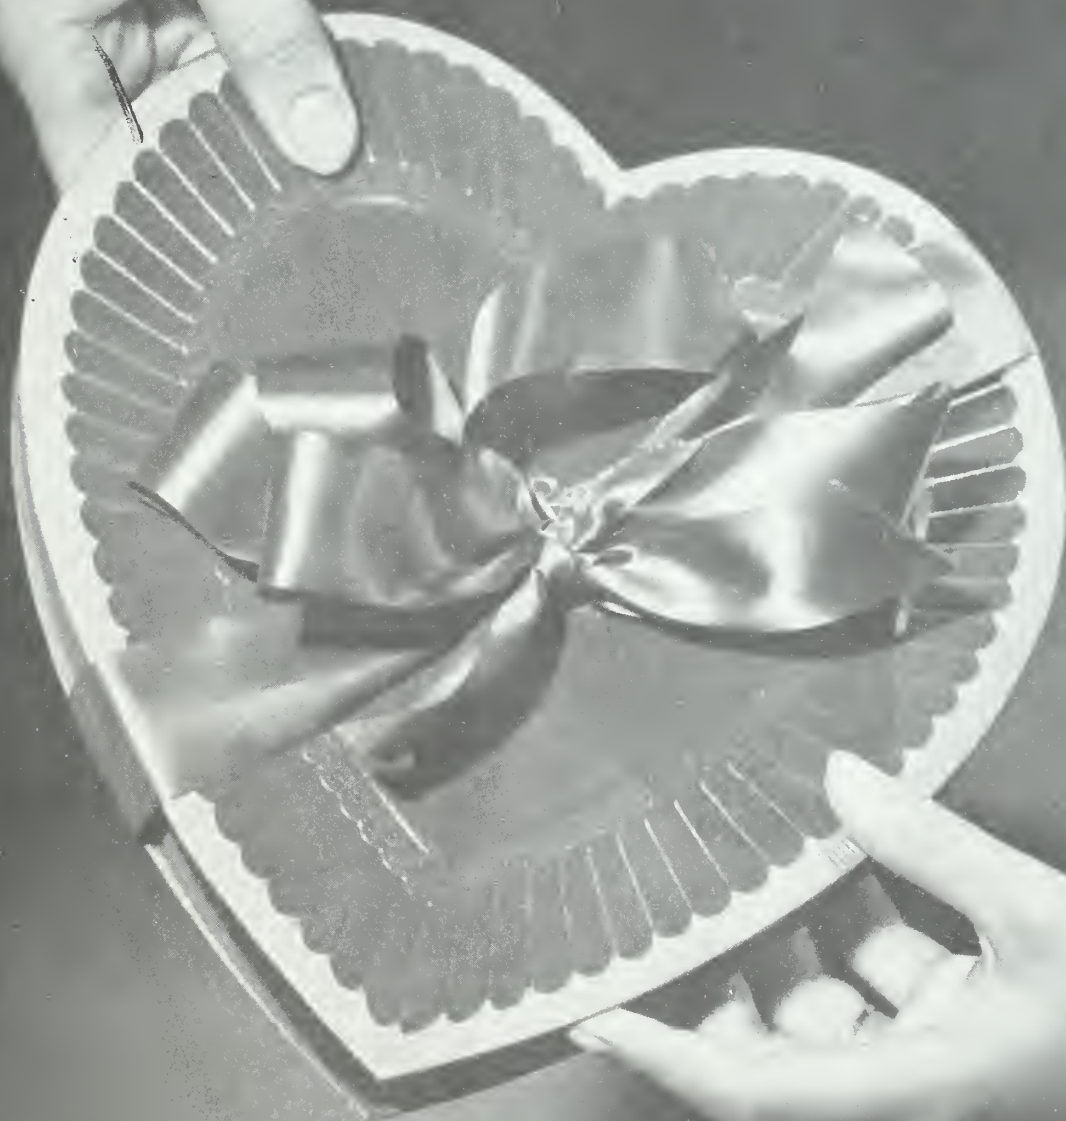

How we'll miss you and long again
For your dear faces.

Looking onward, looking upward
Always look above.

At last the time has come for us
From you to depart

You are our guiding Light, the one
We hold apart.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of Wendell High School, of Wake County, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of our earthly existence, do make and declare this our last will and testament in manner and form following, hereby revoking all former wills at any time heretofore made by us.

FIRST

To Mr. Boyette, our Principal, to Mrs. Boyette, our loyal advisor and sponsor, and to the faculty we leave our gratitude and innermost appreciation for the many things they have done for our class of '54 of W. H. S.

SECOND

We, Tommy Bunn, Jerry Lovelace, and Claud Hull, will our love for music to Bill Apple, who is the last of the great four.

I, Marie Massey, will my ricochet romances to Faye Martin.

I, Joyce Boykin, will my good grades to Joyce Atkinson.

We, Harold Rogers and Ollie Baker, will our ability to play all sports to Chesley Knott and Fuzzy Allen.

We, Joe Dean and Graham Dean, leave our loud ways to Dorothy Liles and Daffy Gurlley.

We, Barbara Archer and Mary Frances Fuller, will our ability to get a man and keep him, to Betty Jean Richardson and Betty Hinnant.

We, Sue Taylor and Dean Richardson, leave our driving ability to Glenn Frances Nowell and Marie Johnston, hoping Wendell will have a few telephone posts left.

We, Faye Driver and Beaman Scarboro, bequest our stylish and "catty" ways to Suzanne Cooke.

We, John Chamblee and Roger Phipps, leave our way with the women to Luther Ledford, D. W. Byrd and Charles Smith.

I, Jack Lewis, sadly leave Sally Joe Griffin.

We, Frank Starnes and Wayne Raper, leave our lucky "teter" stunts to Doug Raper and Ross Gay.

We, Jo Ann Roberts and Linda Nowell, will our few ideas on flirting to Jean Sneed and Emily Dean, to add to their collection.

We, Bobby Horton and Robert Raybon, leave our dreamy eyes to Milo Turnipseed, Carlton Privette, and Gilbert Wood. Hope you make a hit with the girls.

We, Annie Mae Crawford and Kathleen Earp, leave our quiet ways to Patricia Richardson and Barbara Martin.

I, Betty Lou Richardson, will my position of star guard to Hunter Ann Johnson and Jane Johnson.

I, Millie Fuller, leave my love for fords to Clara Pulley. Wonder why?

We, Kenneth Nowell and Charles Clark, leave our ability to get the family car to Larry Price.

We, Elmore Stott and Paul Pittman, leave some of our height to Wanda Gay, not that she needs it.

I, Billy Raper, leave to Lloyd Sanderford my job of driving the bus.

We, Milo Horton and Yvonne Dean, will our friendliness to Raymond Stott.

We, Virginia Long and Esther Harris, leave to Mary Alice Braudwell our joy of walking to school.

I, Shirley Johnson, leave my natural curly hair to Charles Medlin.

I, Peggy Mitchell, leave my ability to get tall men to Linda Andrews.

I, Judy Lane, leave an empty seat, good times and my love for Wendell High to Betty Jean Wall.
